Assemblies For Busy Teachers

This collection of school assemblies covers a wide variety of self-contained topics; from the nature of time to the Dunkirk evacuation; from the dangers of drug dependency to the story of Guy Fawkes and the gunpowder plot; from study revision techniques to the Nobel Prize; each subject is presented in a convenient, easy to use format.

Variously historical, amusing and thought provoking, each is designed to capture and hold the attention of the audience. But most important of all for today's busy teacher, this collection of school assemblies are presented here 'ready to go'.
